record personal demographics (age, gender, etc.) We may publish our results from this and other sessions in our reports, but all such reports will be confidential and will neither include your name nor cannot be associated with your identity. If you have any questions or complaints about the whole informed consent process of this research study or your rights as a human research subject, please contact

. You should carefully read the information below.

Please take as much time as you need to read the consent form.

1. Purpose and Goal of this Research Understanding what images of people reveal about them. Your participation will help us achieve this goal. The results of this research may be presented at scientific or professional meetings or published in scientific proceedings and journals.
2. Participation and Compensation Your participation in this online study is completely voluntary. You will be one of approximately 24 people being surveyed for this research. You will receive X EUR/GBP as compensation. You may withdraw and discontinue participation at any time without penalty. If you decline to participate or withdraw from the online study, no one on the campus will be told. You may refuse to answer any questions you do not want to answer.
3. Procedure After confirming your informed consent you will:

1. Fill in Demographics

2. You will be asked to rate the faces of 14 people. The complete procedure of this online study will last approximately 20 min.
4. Risks and Benefits There are no risks associated with this online study. Discomforts or inconveniences will be minor and are not likely to happen. If any discomforts become a problem, you may discontinue your participation. You will not directly benefit through participation in this online study. We hope that the information obtained from your participation may help to bring forward the research in this field.
5. Data Protection and Confidentiality Personal data (age, gender, etc.) will be recorded while participating. The researcher will not identify you by your real name in any reports using information obtained from this online study and that your confidentiality as a participant in this online study will remain secure and encrypted. All data you provide in this online study will be published anonymized and treated confidentially in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) of the European Union (EU). Subsequent uses of records and data will be subject to standard data use policies which protect the full anonymity of the participating individuals. In all cases, uses of records and data will be subject to the GDPR. Faculty and administrators from the campus will not have access to raw data or transcripts. This precaution will prevent your individual comments from having any negative repercussions. This site uses cookies and other tracking technologies to conduct the research, to improve the user experience, the ability to interact with the system and to provide additional content from third parties. Despite careful control of content, the researchers assume no liability for damages, which directly or indirectly result from the use of this online application. Any recordings cannot be viewed by anyone outside this research project unless we have you sign a separate permission form allowing us to use them (see below). Records that have not been made public are automatically deleted after the end of the research. The records will be destroyed if you contact the researcher to destroy or delete them immediately. As with any publication or online-related activity, the risk of a breach of confidentiality is always possible. According to the GDPR, the researchers will inform the participant if a breach of confidential data was detected.
6. Identification of Investigators If you have any questions or concerns about the research, please feel free to contact:

q1_intro Introduction

Thank you for participating in this survey. This survey is part of a Master thesis and all the collected data will be anonymized and used for scientific purposes only. Several images of people will be presented to you and your task is to answer some questions about that person and estimate their income. When answering these questions, we are not interested in your personal beliefs (except for income), but in how you think they are viewed by others (society).

Please indicate which statements are true? (multiple choices)

- ☐ This survey is part of a bachelor thesis. (9)
- ☐ You have to estimate the income of certain individuals. (5)
- ☐ We are interested in your personal beliefs about certain individuals. (4)
- ☐ We are interested in the beliefs of your society. (8)
- ☐ The collected data will not be anonymized. (6)
